Profile

UNICEF Chief Statistician and Deputy Director (Data & Analytics) with extensive experience building statistical systems and policy analytics for international organizations, including leadership roles at the World Bank. Work spans poverty and equity measurement, education and learning assessment, SDG monitoring, and large-scale survey/microdata harmonization, with a focus on reproducible analytics and operational decision support.

Selected contributions

- Led multi-unit data and analytics functions across domains including population, education, poverty, nutrition, health, WASH, child protection, climate, frontier data, and survey methods.
- Co-developed the World Bank Learning Poverty measure and contributed to scaling comparable learning outcomes metrics across countries.
- Built global data harmonization and analytics architectures spanning 1,000+ learning assessments and 1,200+ household surveys.
- Created `unicefData`, a trilingual open-source package (R, Python, Stata) providing consistent interfaces to UNICEF's SDMX data warehouse for child welfare indicators.
- Delivered technical assistance and capacity building to national statistical systems and sector ministries, including poverty mapping and deprivation indices to support resource allocation.

Work Experience

UNICEF Headquarters

Chief Statistician & Deputy Director, Data and Analytics — February 2023–Present

UNICEF's first Chief Statistician, leading the organization's global data and statistical work across all child-related domains. Oversees the production and delivery of over 730 child-related indicators, including 19 SDG indicators, with emphasis on reproducible and scalable analytics. Provides technical assistance to national statistical offices on child- and family-centric household surveys, including the Multiple Indicator Cluster Surveys (MICS) program.

World Bank Education Global Practice

Lead Economist & EdTech Fellow — October 2018–February 2023

Led education data and analytics work as Lead Economist, EdTech Fellow, and Education Statistics Coordinator. Co-developed the Learning Poverty measure and Global Target. Created the EduAnalytics team and built a data analytics architecture harmonizing over 1,000 learning assessments across countries, with standards for reproducibility and quality assurance.

World Bank Poverty and Equity Global Practice

Lead Economist — June 2015–September 2018

Led the Global Solution Group on Welfare Measurement and Statistical Capacity, and the Data for Goals initiative. Built a harmonization architecture for 1,200+ household surveys used in global poverty monitoring. Led poverty mapping and capacity building with national statistical agencies across EU member states (Latvia, Bulgaria, Croatia, Romania, Hungary), including the Croatian Index of Multiple Deprivation used for EU Structural Funds allocation.

World Bank Poverty and Equity Practice, Europe and Central Asia

Senior Economist — February 2013–June 2015

Led poverty and equity advisory work for Turkey and Central Asia (Tajikistan, Kazakhstan, Uzbekistan). Led the ECA regional statistical team.

World Bank Poverty Reduction and Economic Management, Latin America

Senior Economist / Economist — August 2008–January 2013

Led poverty and equity advisory work for the Government of Colombia, covering poverty measurement, human opportunities, and labor market policies. Led the LAC regional statistical team and the Monitoring and Evaluation network. Co-led the regional study on teenage pregnancy and the Listening to LAC innovation pilots.

Secretariat of Finance of the State of Rio de Janeiro

Superintendent of Monitoring and Evaluation — February 2007–January 2008

Led a team of applied econometricians supporting evidence-based policy at the state treasury. Projects included constructing 'Doing Business' indicators from administrative records, evaluating fiscal incentive effectiveness, and analyzing operational efficiency of state auditors.

Brazilian Ministry of Education / UNESCO / UNDP

Executive Coordinator, National Evaluation of Brasil Alfabetizado — October 2004–December 2007

Designed and coordinated a nationwide evaluation of Brazil's National Adult Literacy program. Led all aspects including evaluability assessment, survey instrument design, sampling, fieldwork, and analysis, providing the Ministry of Education with a comprehensive assessment of program targeting, effectiveness, and efficiency.

Supervision & Mentoring

- Doctoral Committee Member, Tilburg University (Netherlands), 2019
Member of the promotiecommissie (doctoral committee) for the PhD dissertation of Carlos Eduardo Sandoval Moreno: "Three Essays on Poverty Measurement and Risk Protection" (CentER Dissertation Series, Tilburg University). The dissertation covers asset-based poverty traps in urban Colombia, household income dynamics and convergence-based poverty measurement, and the effect of health insurance types on health outcomes using fuzzy RDD. Promotor: Prof. dr. Arthur van Soest; Copromotor: dr. Martin Salm.
- Master's Thesis Co-Advisor, Fundação Instituto Brasileiro de Geografia e Estatística (IBGE) (Brazil), 2008
Co-advised Master's thesis of Marcelo Pessoa da Silva in the Master's Program in Population Studies and Social Research at IBGE. Thesis title: "Avaliação de impacto utilizando Registros administrativos e dados Secundários: experiência do programa Brasil alfabetizado" (Impact Evaluation Using Administrative Records and Secondary Data: Experience of the Brasil Alfabetizado Program). Student went on to develop innovative evaluation methods using administrative data from Brazil's adult literacy program.
- Doctoral Examination Committee, Universidade Federal do Rio de Janeiro (UFRJ) (Brazil), 2006
Served on doctoral qualifying examination committee for Luís Otávio de Abreu Reiff, PhD student in Industrial and Technology Economics at UFRJ. Examined dissertation on "UMA AVALIAÇÃO DE IMPACTO DO PROGRAMA DE MODERNIZAÇÃO DA ADMINISTRAÇÃO TRIBUTÁRIA (PMAT/BNDES)" (Impact Evaluation of the Tax Administration Modernization Program). Committee provided feedback on evaluation methodology and research design.
- Doctoral Co-Advisor, Universidade Federal de Minas Gerais (UFMG) (Brazil), 2006–2007–2008
Co-advised PhD dissertation of Betânia Totino Peixoto in Economics at UFMG. Thesis title: "Uma Contribuição para prevenção da criminalidade" (A Contribution to Crime Prevention). Also served on her doctoral qualifying examination committee (2006) and defense committee (2008). Dissertation built on impact evaluation of the Fica Vivo violence prevention program in Minas Gerais.

Technical Expertise

Technical work draws on advanced statistical programming in Stata (including ado-file development and SSC contributions), R, Python, and SQL, combined with experience building analytical data services using SDMX, REST, and data warehouse APIs. Recent work integrates LLM-assisted analysis with human-in-the-loop review workflows, and emphasizes reproducible pipelines, data quality engineering, and PII compliance. Core quantitative methods include econometrics and impact evaluation, survey design and sampling, small area estimation and poverty mapping, and data visualization.

Domain expertise spans poverty measurement and analysis, education statistics and learning assessment, child development indicators, SDG monitoring and reporting, and human capital measurement. Languages: Portuguese (native), English (fluent), Spanish (fluent), French (basic).
